

Courtney Tucker is NGFA's Coordinator, Legal and Commercial Affairs. Courtney works on arbitration and commercial matters for NGFA. She has extensive experience in legal case management. Prior to joining NGFA in 2025, she was the Senior Paralegal at the Tenenbaum Law Group, where she helped incorporate more than 100 new nonprofit entities nationwide and facilitated their IRS tax-exemption applications. Courtney holds a B.A. in politics from Converse University (formerly known as Converse College) in Spartanburg S.C.