

GRAIN AND OILSEED EXPORTS: Feeding the World, Fueling the Economy

America exports approximately 25% of the grains and 40% of the oilseeds it produces. Those exports, worth more than $66 billion in 2024, generated...

$174B

ECONOMIC IMPACT

450,000

U.S. JOBS

$61B

TRADE SURPLUS

NGFA POSITION

NGFA advocates for an open, global market.

We support President Trump's efforts to protect America's interests on the global stage, hold our trading partners accountable, achieve new trade deals, and maintain markets that are vital to U.S. agriculture and the grain and feed industry.

NGFA REQUESTS

- Negotiate new trade deals quickly and include better access for U.S. agriculture.
- Continue to work with the Chinese government to initiate discussions and move forward sustaining agreements on agricultural exports.
- Extend and improve the U.S.-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA).
- Monitor and mitigate any negative trade impact from 301 Shipbuilding penalties.

National Grain and Feed Association
TRANSFORMING AMERICA'S HARVEST[®]